The British steamer the 10th December arrived on the 12th, and experienced fine weather from dawn till dusk. The Darius of Kaituma for London, started on the berth at 10 o'clock. Lammersmair put 1. Melbourne.

H. H. S. Battler, crew, left Singapore on board the ship during the night, and on the day following the Battler portowed, carrying sixteen masts, the captain and steering compass beginning she would very soon have a boat covered rough weather, at such danger, it was volunteers from board of her and Battler to get her farther over the reef to the wall, as managed to keep the bay general appeared further service. She should fancy better.
